Day	Time	schedule
MON	13.00 hrs	Depart Kyoto University clock tower for afternoon sightseeing tour by a chartered coach.
	13.30 hrs	Visit the Kinkakuji (Golden Pavilion) is a Zen temple formally known as Rokuonji. In 1397 construction started on the Golden Pavilion as part of a new residence for the retired shogun Ashikaga Yoshimitsu. Kinkakuji was converted into a Zen temple after Yoshimitsu's death in 1408. The Golden Pavilion functions as shariden, housing sacred relics of the Buddha and is covered in gold leaf. The present building dates from 1955 as the pavilion was burnt by a fanatic monk in 1950.
	15.00hrs	Move to Nijo Castle (Nijojo) was built by Tokugawa Ieyasu, founder of the Edo Shogunate, as the Kyoto residence for himself and his successors. The palace building now known as Ninomaru (secondary castle), was completed in 1603 and enlarged by Ieyasu's grandson Iemitsu. It survives in its original form and is famous for its Momoyama architecture, decorated sliding doors and floors that squeak like nightingales when someone walks on them .
	16.00hrs	Move to Heian-jingu Shrine was built in 1895, as the 1,100th anniversary of the transfer of the capital from Nara to Kyoto. Heian-jingu Shrine is also famous for its garden, with a large red front gate as its symbol. Heian Shrine is dedicated to the spirits of the first and last emperors who reigned from the city, Emperor Kammu (737-806) and Emperor Komei (1831-1867). Heian is the former name of Kyoto.   Next, walk up to Kyoto Museum of Traditional Crafts.
